Pioneering Festival producer and Wanderer Programmer Simon Daly, who has created some of Australia's most unique musical and cultural experiences including The Falls Music & Arts and The Lost Lands, said today, "We are excited by the initial reaction to Wanderer – locals and music fans across the country have been so positive, there has been enormous goodwill extended towards this new event on the festival calendar, as the uptake of pre-sale tickets demonstrates. We are looking forward to making further announcements regarding our line up, and much more."

Wanderer presents a music line-up that transcends genre and demographic, and a diverse arts program that brings together theatre and comedy, circus and cultural workshops. Highlights include the fabulously glam circus ensemble Circus Trick Tease, bringing their show Werk It: fresh from sold out seasons at Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Adelaide Fringe, and boasting circus royalty from Circus Oz and Circa. The rapturously wry Geraldine Hickey (fellow Melbourne International Comedy Festival winning alumni) crowns the comedy line-up.

With its focus firmly on the multi-generation experience, Wanderer is a festival for everyone - with different stages, spaces and campgrounds created purposefully for the young, old and everyone in between. The region offers many excellent off-site accommodation options for those preferring to stay beach front, hinterland or in town.

Strategically positioned mid-point between Sydney and Melbourne and just a three-hour drive from Canberra, the Sapphire Coast remains one of Australia's truly pristine landscapes, bound by majestic native bushland, bucolic fields and undisturbed waterways. The region is also home to a vibrant creative community, the spirit upon which the festival is founded. It also promises to be one of the most unique festival experiences in Australia, luring visitors to one of the country's most inspiring destinations.

Wanderer Festival is proudly supported by the NSW Government through its tourism and major events agency, Destination NSW.
